SMILE ↗ MILE

Nobody can change the challenges we face day after day, but we can surely win the race by following a simple way. Just keep smiling wherever you go, and not keep sorrows to show. This smile will eliminate all the tensions, And you will have only pleasing moments to mention. This can develop a bond between two or more, And will open the happiness door. So, always keep a smile on your face, And see how you will win the life's race.

ECHOES OF EXCELLENCE : Our Alumni Reflections

"After completing my 12th grade, I cleared the NDA exam without formal coaching, relying solely on my school education. As the Sports Captain, I honed my leadership skills, leading our Volleyball, Kho-Kho, and Basketball teams and spearheading the Sports Day parade. At the NDA, I was appointed Academy Cadet Captain, leading the Passing Out Parade for my course. I then joined the Air Force Academy, where I was selected for the fighter stream. After a year of rigorous training, I proudly earned my wings as a fighter pilot."

Utkarsh Sharma

"An alumna of All Saints School, Agra (2014), I discovered my passion for the performing arts early on. Driven by my love for storytelling, I followed my heart to Delhi to explore theatre, eventually making my way to Mumbai to pursue my dreams. Currently, I am actively engaged in acting and performing arts, both on camera and on stage. My acting journey began with the feature film 'Dilon Mein Uphaan' followed by several commercial advertisements, short films, and my most recent film, 'Delhi 2020', which is set for release soon. With every role, I grow as an artist, driven by my passion for acting and the magic of performance."

"All Saints School was more than just a place of learning—it was my second home, shaping my journey in countless ways. Currently pursuing Journalism (BJMC) in Delhi, I've had the opportunity to visit top news channels like India TV and NDTV and attend iconic shows like 'Aap Ki Adalat'. A defining moment was attending the Amrit Ratna Award Function by News18 India, where I met influential personalities. This journey has been one of creativity, expression, and discovery as I explore the power of media—the fourth pillar of democracy."
